

CASE STUDY

WE GET THE DEAL DONE

Invicta Holdings acquired Nationwide Bearings Company

INDUSTRIALS

THE DETAILS:

APRIL 2024

UNITED KINGDOM | SOUTH AFRICA

acquired

Translink Corporate Finance acted as the advisor to the seller

KEY TAKEOUTS:

Translink Corporate Finance acted as the lead advisor, project managing the full process to completion

Multi-disciplinary and cross-border team, consisting of corporate financiers in the UK and South Africa and tax and SPA advisory specialists in the UK

DEAL MAKERS:

Andy Haigh, Declan Savage, John Blake and Luke Harrower

TRANSACTION ANNOUNCEMENT:

Translink Corporate Finance acted as lead advisor to Nationwide Bearing Company Limited (“Nationwide”), a supplier of consumable parts for agricultural and earth-moving machinery sectors, on its sale to Invicta Holdings Ltd (“Invicta”)

Nationwide is a UK-based supplier of a range of bearings and consumable parts, under its own “NWB” brand, to a global customer base consisting of OEMs and market-leading distributors.

Invicta is a JSE-listed investment holding company with a global portfolio of companies predominantly focussed on the supply of agricultural and construction consumable parts.

SUMMARY:

The acquisition grows Invicta’s UK presence and adds a globally recognised, reputable brand of consumable parts to its portfolio.

Translink was responsible for project managing the process from start to finish, including marketing, reviewing indicative offers, negotiating the heads of terms and advising on the commercial elements of the legal documentation.