

CASE STUDY

We get the deal done.

AGRD Partners acquired Born

BUSINESS SERVICES

TRANSACTION ANNOUNCEMENT

Translink advised Born in the sale to AGRD Partners, a portfolio company of Axcel

Born is a specialist law firm with a focus on the business success of its clients

Axcel, a private equity firm investing across Northern Europe, has established AGRD Partners with six leading business law firms in Sweden

TRANSACTION HIGHLIGHTS:

Translink Corporate Finance acted as the exclusive financial advisor to Born, a specialist law firm with a focus on the business success of its clients.

Born represent their clients in all aspects of the deal, from structural questions and due diligence to negotiation, financing and, if necessary, dispute resolution. Their legal advice is always linked to the client's needs, commercial challenges and business objectives. For Born, professionalism is a combination of expertise, creativity and tailor-made advice.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Axcel has established AGRD Partners with the firms Born, Allié, Morris Law, Next, Synch, and TM&Partners. By sharing knowledge, complementing each other's range of services, and achieving economies of scale, they can create even greater value for their clients.
- At the same time, each partner remains independent, maintaining the closeness, flexibility, and local presence that this brings.

DEALMAKERS:

Translink Sweden: Fredrik Ullberg, Hannes Hedberg

"It is exciting to become part of AGRD Partners and, together with other well-established law firms, form an industry leader. We are very pleased with Translink Corporate Finance – their advice contributed to a secure and successful process."

Erik Borgblad, Partner at Born