

CASE STUDY

We get the deal done.

Lagercrantz Group acquired Sit Right and Enskede Hydraul

INDUSTRIALS

TRANSACTION ANNOUNCEMENT

Translink advised Sit Right and Enskede Hydraul on their sale to Lagercrantz Group

Sit Right contributes with high-tech ergonomic and grapple products with global reach, while Enskede Hydraul adds specialist knowledge and a broad product range within hydraulic

Lagercrantz is a B2B value-creating industrial technology group offering proprietary products and products from leading suppliers

TRANSACTION HIGHLIGHTS:

Translink Corporate Finance has served as financial and strategic advisor to Sit Right and Enskede Hydraul in the sale to Lagercrantz Group.

Through the acquisitions of Sit Right and Enskede Hydraul, Lagercrantz Group further strengthens its position within the business area Niche Products.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Both companies are well-established players with strong market positions in components and accessories for forestry and construction machinery.
- Sit Right contributes with high-tech ergonomic and grapple products with global reach, while Enskede Hydraul adds specialist knowledge and a broad product range within hydraulics.

DEALMAKERS:

Translink Sweden:
Fredrik Ullberg, Anton Danielsson, Douglas Grünberger

"We are excited to become part of Lagercrantz, a long-term and industrially experienced owner who shares our vision of quality, innovation, and customer focus. Through Lagercrantz, Sit Right and Enskede Hydraul gain even better conditions to continue growing and developing. The process together with Translink Corporate Finance has been professional and reassuring – their dedication and experience have been key to finding the right partner for the next stage of our companies' journey."

Andreas Solem & Robert Nilsson, owners of Sit Right and Enskede Hydraul